Wilcox Oil Refinery Site
Proposed to the National Priorities List
May 22, 2013

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), in conjunction with the Oklahoma Department of Environmental Quality (ODEQ), has proposed the Wilcox Oil Refinery Site on the National Priorities List. The National Priorities List is EPA's list of uncontrolled or abandoned hazardous waste sites identified for long-term cleanup under the federal Superfund program. The Site is located in Creek County, Oklahoma. The Site is being proposed to the National Priorities List because of the presence of contaminated soil, old cooling ponds, and numerous old tank bottoms. Hazardous substances include polycyclic hydrocarbons (PAH's) and metals, primarily lead.

The proposal docket for this site is available for review at the:

The City of Bristow Public Library
